E-MAIL NEWSLETTER Nov 30, 2011

Greetings everyone! I'm back from traveling in Mexico – first leading my annual pilgrimage to the Day of the Dead in Oaxaca (13th straight year I've gone!), then on to Chiapas, where I was scouting for my tour there next November. Karl has been traveling relentlessly in Asia for weeks, leading two of our tours (Myanmar & India) and working on multiple photo assignments for humanitarian organizations, writing many blogs (see below).

I have put together a gallery of my images from the Oaxaca trip – go to www.jimcline.com/oaxaca11 or click on the image below:

New Member of our Team – Kat Miner!

Kat Miner has recently joined the Jim Cline Photo Tours team. She's been helping us with many of the tour logistics including handling emails, working with our tour operators, and much, much more. In addition to her administrative skills, Kat is also a skilled photographer and has been making photos for more than 25 years. Her work was recently featured on the cover of the Polish magazine, "Hiro" and in a recently published coffee table book about Catalina Island where several of her images were featured. She is passionate about sharing photography with others and has taught privately for several years. Karl and I met Kat years ago when we all won awards in the San Diego County Fair International Exhibition of Photography. When she's not working for us, Kat does freelance photography work for a local newspaper. We're excited and grateful to have her on board as part of our team. You can see samples of her work on her website at www.seethingsdifferently.com.

Tour Participant News

We mentioned in the June newsletter that a Black & White Portfolio of Lou Montrose' images from the 2010 and 2005 Day of the Dead in Oaxaca trips with Jim was published in the May/June 2011 Lenswork #94. I was pleased to give a copy to the family of this girl whom I have known and photographed for many years, and Lou took a portrait of her which appeared in Lenswork.

They live in a nearby village and come to the city to sell flowers for the Day of the Dead celebrations for only 3 days every year. The family was thrilled and she felt like a star for at least one day – thanks Lou!

We're in Rough Guides!

We are already listed in Moon Handbooks and Frommer's guidebooks. Now we have been written up in Rough Guides as well!

Tours – Winter/Spring of 2012

Thailand, Laos & Cambodia with Karl Grobl, Jan 19 – Feb 3, 2012

Trip full, waitlist available (2013 Interest List Forming)

From Thailand's beautiful temples, bustling floating markets, and fascinating hill tribes, to the authentic traditional cultures of Luang Prabang in Laos, an extended boat trip down the Mekong River with an overnight stay along its banks, and the mystical Angkor Wat in Cambodia, this trip has it all.

Testimonial from Feb 2011 Thailand, Laos & Cambodia trip:

"I have been on several organized photo tours and workshops – this was by far the best experience I have had in terms of flow of activities, shooting time balanced with "tour" stuff, attention from/time with/assistance and overall organization of the trip. Karl's passion for photography and interaction with the local people – many of whom he clearly knows from his work there and from prior trips. I feel very fortunate to have had this experience and look forward to future trips with Jim and Karl." Lisa Brockman, San Diego, CA

Guatemala, the Living Maya, with Jim Cline February 3 – 13, 2012

Trip full, waitlist available (2013 Interest List forming)

This trip is not to be missed; it's one of the most beautiful areas to photograph (and one of my personal favorites). We'll visit the colonial gem of Antigua, the beautiful Lake Atitlan ringed by traditional villages, the famous Mayan market at Chichicastenango, and several less-visited villages outside of Quetzaltenango, I have many friends in the Mayan villages and we will have photo opportunities that other tourists never have.

Amazing Myanmar (Burma), Feb 14 – 28, with Karl Grobl

Trip full, waitlist available

Join Humanitarian Photojournalist Karl Grobl and discover the Golden Land, perhaps the least discovered country in Southeast Asia. This journey includes visits to Yangon's Schwedegon Pagoda, the ancient city of Bagan where the landscape is dotted with more than one thousand temples, Inle Lake where we will photograph local fishermen, bustling local markets and lakeside life seemingly unchanged for centuries.

Vietnam Explorer with Karl Grobl, March 20 – April 3, 2012

Trip full, waitlist available (2013 Interest List forming)

Vietnam is truly one of the few "authentic" destinations left in this modern ever-homogenizing world. With its amazing diversity and rich cultural history, Vietnam offers the adventurous traveler a unique opportunity to experience and photograph an exciting mix of landscapes, people, places, philosophies, cuisines, crafts, and religions.

Peru, Machu Picchu & the Sacred Valley of the Incas

May 2 – 12, 2012 with Jim Cline – Only one space available!

May 16 – 26, 2012 with Jim Cline –spaces available

The first trip booked up so early, I've added a second trip. May is the best time to visit the highlands of Peru.

Peru is truly an amazing photography destination with colonial cities and mystical Inca ruins situated high in the Andes, with friendly people in their colorful markets with traditional clothing. I know this area very well and have many friends to photograph, as I've been there 12 times in the past 8 years!

Spaces Available

The hybrid "Workshop / photo tour" is a combination of a workshop and photo tour experience, aimed at those of you who want more of an intensive classroom type experience, in a setting that allows for fantastic photo opportunities. This past year's workshop was a big success, and the instructors are excited to run it again in 2012!

Nepal & Bhutan October/November 2012, with Karl Grobl

Information Soon – Interest List Available

Day of the Dead in Oaxaca, Oct 28 – Nov 5, 2012, with Jim Cline

Just released – Spaces available!

This trip is a personal favorite – this will be my 14th straight year photographing in Oaxaca during the Day of the Dead celebrations!!! Many other companies have now jumped on the bandwagon, bringing large groups, but I have a more intimate knowledge of this amazing celebration, and now how to find the action and chase the light there like no one else – and I keep my group size small. We'll be photographing the parties in several village cemeteries, as well as colorful parades, spectacular colonial architecture, Zapotec pyramids, indigenous markets, traditional dance performances, and the daily life of Oaxaca.

This trip fills up every year, so you will need to book a space soon. We have had several people attend this trip, who liked it so much they came back on it again another year.

Chiapas, Mexico: El Mundo Maya November 10 – 19, 2012, with Jim Cline

Information Very Soon – Interest List Available

I will be leading this trip again to my favorite area in Mexico. We'll photograph Mayan pyramids, the current day descendants of the Mayans with their weaving traditions, turquoise rivers and wildlife (hopefully crocodiles), waterfalls, and the beautiful colonial city of San Cristobal de las

Casas. To see a gallery of my images from there go to www.jimcline.com/chiapas
